

AMERICAN AIR SQUADRON MADE TWO BOMB RAIDS

Heavily Shelled By Opposing Batteries But Returned Uninjured

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 14.—By the Associated Press.—The first American bombing squadron to operate behind the front successfully raided the Domguy-Baroncourt railway at a point northwest of Briey late Wednesday, dropping many bombs. It is believed that several direct hits were made by the five planes participating.

A large number of German Albatross machines attacked the bombers after they had performed their mission and were returning home. Three of the Albatrosses attempted to cut two of the American bombers but they themselves were attacked by other American planes. The fighting continued until the machines reached the battle line when the Germans retired. All the American aviators returned safely, the they had been heavily shelled by anti-aircraft batteries.

Made Second Trip.
A second excursion of American bombing planes was made late this afternoon behind the German lines. All returned safely notwithstanding anti-aircraft fire and after repulsing the attacks of two German airplanes. Five American machines launched 75 bombs weighing two kilos each on the railway station and adjoining buildings at Conflans.

No Infantry Action Friday.
Paris, June 14.—Friday there was no fighting between infantry on any sectors of the battle front. There was considerable artillery activity in the Haugard wood south of the Aisne and between Villers Cotterets and Chateau Thierry. American troops are on the battle line near Chateau Thierry.

This information is contained in the French official communication issued this evening the text of which follows:
"There was no infantry action during the day. The artillery fighting was rather lively in the Haugard wood to the south of the Aisne and in the region between Villers-Cotterets and Chateau Thierry."

"The day was calm everywhere else."
"In the material captured from the enemy on June 11, should be included 40 machine guns."
"Our chasing air squadrons have brought down five airplanes and two captive balloons. Seven other German machines have been put out of action."

"During the night of June 13-14 our bombing squadron dropped on establishments, stations and cantonments in the enemy zone nineteen tons of explosives, causing important damage."

Awards for Service.
Washington, June 14.—General Pershing reported to the war department tonight the names of eleven officers and men awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. Their names, with addresses as shown by department records follow:
Private Leo F. McGuire, Tulsa, Okla.
Private Fred A. Renick, St. Louis, Mo.
Corporal Arthur W. Jones, Minneapolis, Minn.
First Lieutenant Cornelius Bard, care William J. Reid, Boston.

Second Lieutenant Ralph L. Bishop, New Haven, Conn.
Sergeant Eric S. Olsen, New Britain, Conn.
Corporal Ralph A. Sanderson, Forest Grove, Mont.
Corporal Francis E. Hurley, Malden, Mass.
Private First Class Thomas Jolly, Plainsboro, N. J.
Private Charles E. Gunter, Decatur, Ill.

Private Edward J. Ferrell, possibly should be Edward G. Farrell, Kingsbury, Texas.

FLOOD DAMAGE PLACED AT HALF MILLION.
Quincy, Ill., June 14.—With the flood receding somewhat today, there was no further damage to levees or crops following the break in the Indian Grove levee yesterday. Conservative estimate maintains the loss of crops in the 8,000 acres of flooded area at half a million dollars. Repairs on the levee and planting of late corn will be undertaken as soon as the water recedes sufficiently for this work.

COAL SHORTAGE CERTAIN.
St. Paul, Minn., June 14.—The coal shortage situation probably will be more deeply felt this winter than last according to representatives of the United Mine Workers of America, who are attending the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor.

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The army casualty list today contained 119 names, divided as follows:
Killed in action 29
Died of wounds 5
Died of accident 3
Died of Disease 6
Wounded severely 70
Wounded, (degree undetermined) 1
Missing in action 5
Illinoisans appearing in the list were as follows:

KILLED IN ACTION
Roy Dunbar, South Chicago.
R. Meehan, LaSalle.
Earl Garrett, Windsor.
William Heitzel, Congress Park.
John J. Stetz, Chicago.
Joseph Waslewski, DePue.

MARINE CORPS CASUALTIES.
A Marine corps casualty list of sixty two names, given out today, carries the first large number announced since the Marines began to take an active part in the fighting in France. The Marines have borne the brunt of heavy German attacks and themselves have attacked in force. It was thought the names carried in today's list were those of men who have been fighting in the region of Chateau Thierry.

Of these eight were killed in action; six died of wounds, and forty-eight severely wounded.
Major Benjamin S. Berry, of New York City, and Captain Oscar R. Caldwell of Crawfordsville, Ind., were among the severely wounded.

Illinoisans appearing in the list follows:
KILLED IN ACTION.
Corporal Louis Peters, Chicago.
John Moore, Rochelle.

WESTERN UNION HAS NOT MET DEMANDS

Agreement to Abide By War Board Finding May Come Tomorrow—Strike Still a Possibility.

St. Paul, June 14.—A demand that the Western Union Telegraph company abide by the decision of the national war labor board that operators be given the right to join unions has been made by the Order of Railway Telegraphers' general committee and "unless the company complies the unions will stand together in the struggle against the Western Union," according to S. J. Koenekamp, head of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America, here today to attend the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

The time limit for meeting the demand expires tomorrow noon, he said.

Includes Many Workers.
The railroad telegraphers' organization represents more than 30,000 operators who handle much Western Union business he declared. He announced himself pleased with the action of the Postal Telegraph company in agreeing not to discharge operators who belong to a union and with the stand of President Wilson as announced in letter to the telegraph companies.

"Now if this is followed by reinstatement of the 300 or more employees who were discharged in violation of President Wilson's proclamation and if they are reimbursed for time lost, our trouble with the Postal company will be ended," said Mr. Koenekamp. "In such a case our trouble will be confined to the Western Union, unless, it too, complies with the president's request."
"Ford has reached me that the Western Union officials are trying to cloud the issue by forming a handpicked union along the lines Mr. Carlton proposed to the war labor board and which was rejected by it. The formation of such an organization will not change our plans in the least."

NEW MEN SUBJECT TO DRAFT LISTED

Change in Law Adds 744,865 For Military Service—Illinois Furnishes 44,842.

Washington, June 14.—Nearly complete reports of the Provost Marshal General's office show that 744,865 young Americans who have become of age during the past year registered for military service on June 5. This is 266,724 below the estimate of the census bureau but since more than 200,000 unregistered 21 year olds already are enlisted in the army, navy or marine corps the military authorities do not result entirely satisfactory.

Army and navy estimates place the number of 21 year old men enlisted at 208,588. This figure combined with the falling off in alien registration missed the number of eligibles by only 13,000. The figures for Illinois are 44,842; Iowa, 18,022.

RENO'S RED LIGHTS GO

Reno, Nev., June 14.—Reno's restricted district, which has been recognized and licensed since the old territorial days, will pass out of existence at midnight Saturday night under orders from the war department. This taken as protection to the men who are quarantined at the University of Nevada this summer for training in technical work.

GEN. CROWDER AGAIN AMENDS THE DRAFT LAW

Marriage Since Law was Enacted Does Not Excuse Men from Service

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Marriage since enactment of the selective draft law no longer will be accepted for exemption from military service, except in cases of men who have become of age since June 5, 1917, who may be exempted if they married before January 15, 1918, when the joint resolution requiring their registration was introduced in congress. Drastic amendment to draft regulations were announced tonight by Provost Marshal General Crowder, under which local boards are required to re-classify all cases involving such marriages. Dependency claims on account of children of such marriages will be allowed where children are born or unborn before June 9, 1918.

Following is an order sent to all state executives today:
"Please promulgate at once to the local boards the following important amendment to the selective service regulations:

"Rule 5. Section 7. S. R. is amended to read as follows:
"Rule 5 (A). The fact of dependency resulting from the marriage of a registrant who has become twenty one years of age since June 5, 1917, and who has married since the date of the introduction of the joint resolution in congress requiring his registration, to wit, Jan. 15, 1918, will be disregarded as a ground of deferred classification."

(B) If a registrant who has attained the age of twenty since June 5, 1917, and who has contracted marriage subsequent to the date of the enactment of the selective service law to wit, May 18, 1917, but on or prior to January 15, 1918, claims deferred classification on the ground of dependency resulting from his marriage, the fact of dependency resulting from his marriage will be disregarded as a ground for deferred classification, unless the dependent is a child of the marriage, born or unborn on or prior to June 9, 1918, in which case such a registrant upon satisfactory proof being made shall be classified in Class two."
(C) If a registrant other than one who has attained the age of twenty since June 5, 1917, who has contracted marriage subsequent to the date of the enactment of the selective service law to wit, May 18, 1917, but on or prior to January 15, 1918, claims deferred classification on the ground of dependency resulting from his marriage, the fact of dependency resulting from his marriage will be disregarded as a ground for deferred classification unless the dependent is a child of the marriage, born or unborn on or prior to June 9, 1918, in which case such a registrant upon satisfactory proof being made shall be classified in Class Two."

(D) Nothing contained in this amendment to Rule Five shall be construed as requiring the transfer to Class Two of any registrant who has been finally classified in Class One on the affirmative finding that his marriage May 18, 1917, was made with the primary view of evading military service.

Instruct all local boards forthwith to reclassify all cases in which marriage since May 18, 1917, in accordance with the above."

COMPULSORY MILITARY TRAINING IS FAVORED

Medics Adopt Resolution Urging Compulsory Training for All Young Men Before They are Permitted to Vote.

Chicago, June 14.—Annual convention of the American Medical association adjourned today after adoption of a resolution urging compulsory military training for all young men before they are permitted to vote. "As this training has done much to inculcate hygiene and value of sanitation and personal hygiene in the individual."

New standards for guidance of physicians in examinations of draft registrants were presented by Lieutenant Colonel J. S. Eason, Smith, assistant to Provost Marshal General Crowder at Washington and Major Hubert Work, medical adviser to the provost marshal.

INFILTRER REPORTS

Cleveland, O., June 14.—Harry Lunte, infiltrator, drafted by the Cleveland club from the Mobile, Ala., Southern Association team last fall, reported to Manager Lee Fohl today. Lunte has just recovered from an injury sustained at his home in St. Louis previous to the spring training trip.

CHASED BY SUBMARINE

An Atlantic Port, June 14.—A story of an all day fight yesterday with a German submarine off the Virginia coast was brought here today by Captain George Aitkin of the British Steamship Authority. He said the raider gave up the chase seventy miles from the Virginia Capes apparently fearing to brave the coast patrol.

War Summary

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

The attempted drive by the armies of the German crown prince toward Paris seems definitely to have been checked. With thousands of their men having been fed to the guns on the Montdidier-Noyon and Soissons-Villers-Cotterets sectors in the mad rush to pierce the allied lines in these regions and thus gain a fair way to the French capital, the maneuvers of the German commanders apparently has been brought to the Germans arms nothing more than the obliteration of the Noyon salient and the capture of a few unimportant positions south west of Soissons near the outskirts of the Villers-Cotterets forest.

Thursday the sixth day of the offensive between Noyon and Montdidier witnessed only small local actions, the depleted German forces evidently fearing to again test the mettle of the French and allied troops whose cannon, machine guns and rifles had worked such havoc among them. Less than three days was required by the allies to bring the enemy to a virtual halt south of the Aisne.

The feeling still prevails in military circles in France that the main effort of the Germans has not yet been launched and speculation is rife as to when it will come and what the general objective will be—whether Paris or the channel ports. It is known that the enemy still has large reserves available behind the line thousands of them brought from the Russian front.

The armies of General Foch however, everywhere are watchful and of such strength and good morale as to lead to the belief that no matter where the enemy

AMERICAN FLYER AWARDED CROSS

Distinguished Service Cross is Awarded by Gen. Pershing to First Lieut. Edward Ruford Jr.

With the American Army in France, June 13.—By the Associated Press.—First Lieutenant Edward Ruford Jr., of Nashville, Tenn., of an American air squadron, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross by General Pershing. The citation reads: "On May 22, 1918, while on barrage patrol against German photographic machines, in the region of Commeroy and St. Mihiel he engaged in combat alone five German biplanes, engaging one or more of them in three separate fights on the course of twenty five minutes. One of the machines he shot down and the others were driven off, thus filling his mission in a most efficient manner and against heavy odds."

O'LEARY TRAVELED LIKE BUM, SAYS ATTORNEY

Charge Made that New York Lawyer Disguised Himself in Old Clothes in Order to Engage in Plots.

New York, June 14.—Jeremiah A. O'Leary, the New York lawyer and Sinn Fein leader under indictment here for complicity in two German espionage and treason plots, is the New York for St. Louis on May 7, attired in old clothes, "so as to look like a bum," said Assistant District Attorney Barnes' opening statement in the court today of O'Leary's brother, John J. O'Leary and Arthur L. Lyons on charges of conspiring to thwart justice by helping him to escape.

Barnes told the court it would be shown Jeremiah O'Leary had expressed fear he would be framed up on charges' connecting him with a German spy plot and that Madame K. Victoria, named in the espionage and treason plots would "tell everything unless she was given her dose."

He said the woman was addicted to drugs. Arthur L. Lyons became known today when it was revealed that he had been named in a secret indictment against last Monday. He was arrested that day in Phoenix, Ariz., by department of justice agents, by deploring him to that place from St. Louis. He had accompanied O'Leary by whom he had been employed as a confidential investigator from this city to St. Louis, Barnes asserted.

REVENUE OFFICIAL KILLED SURGEON

Paris, June 14.—The slayer of Professor Samuel Pozzi, celebrated surgeon and former senator, at his home last evening, was Maurice Manchou, a revenue official. Manchou went to Professor Pozzi's office and fired three shots, all effective and then shot himself in the temple dying instantly. Pozzi at a hospital died two hours later.

The Havas Agency learns Professor Pozzi performed an operation on Manchou in 1917 and that Manchou had frequently complained the operation had not restored his health.

EMPEROR WILLIAM ON THE FIRING LINE

Amsterdam, June 14.—Emperor William went into regions under fire during the recent fighting on the French front, according to Karl Rosner, the newspaper's favorite correspondent, who accompanies him on his tours.

ENTENTE NATIONS SEEK JAPANESE AID IN RUSSIA

Officials Gather At Tokio to Show Intervention a Military Necessity

(By The Associated Press)

TOKIO, Friday, June 7.—By the Associated Press.—The entente governments of Europe are bringing increasing influence to bear to induce Japan to intervene in Russia. Among several of the officials who have arrived in Tokio to consult with the general staff is Major Pichon, who was head of the French military mission to Russia and whose recall was demanded by the Bolsheviks. Major Pichon is striving for intervention in Siberia as a military necessity with the same energy that he opposed Roumania's entrance into the war as an ill-advised step.

Apparently Japan is divided on the question of intervention but the army is undergoing severe training. Regiments frequently are heard tramping thru the streets of Tokio at night on their return from long marches and maneuvers.

London, June 14.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Moscow says there are indications that the Germans are preparing to start operations again in the Pskov district and that the question of the defense of Petrograd has been raised anew.

JUDGE HUMPHREY DIES FROM PARALYSIS

Federal Jurist Had Been in Serious Condition Several Weeks—Spent Childhood Days in This County.

Springfield, Ill., June 14.—Judge J. Otis Humphrey, many years judge of the federal court of this district, died here tonight after being in a critical condition for three weeks. An operation to which he submitted brought on a stroke of paralysis resulting in his death.

J. Otis Humphrey was born in Morgan county, Ill., December 30, 1850, the son of William and Sarah Stocker Humphrey, who migrated from Ohio in 1848. He attended Shurtleiff college at Alton, Ill., and after studying law at Springfield was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1880.

He served as a clerk in the office of the Illinois Railroad and Warehouse commissioners, and from 1897 to 1901 was United States district attorney for the southern federal judicial district in Illinois. It was at the expiration of this term that he was named United States judge by President William McKinley. Until his appointment he was a leader in Republican politics in central Illinois.

In 1879, Judge Humphrey married Miss Mary Scott, daughter of Rev. A. H. Scott, then pastor of the Baptist church at Auburn, Ill., and to this union five children were born.

Scott Humphrey, son of Judge Humphrey, is serving with the United States forces in France and Miss Mary Humphrey, a daughter is doing child welfare work among the orphans of France.

PLAN TO DISINTEGRATE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Chase S. Osborn, Candidate for U. S. Senator so Terms Nomination of Ford by Democrats.

Detroit, June 14.—Following announcement yesterday of Henry Ford of Detroit, he would accept nomination for United States senator to succeed William A. Aldrich Smith if elected, was met today by statements from two former governors who had previously announced their candidacy.

Chase S. Osborn assailed the action of the Democratic conference in Lansing Wednesday when it endorsed Ford, a Republican, calling it a plan to disintegrate the Republican party in Michigan. Fred M. Warner speaking at Indianapolis said:

"I am sure Ford will be nominated and elected on the 'Republican ticket.'"

He did not say however, that he would withdraw from the race.

RAILROAD BENEATH CHANNEL PROPOSED

London, June 14.—British Admiralty per Wireless Press.—One of the enterprises which will be taken up and carried to completion after the war will be a tunnel under the English Channel. Sir Arthur Fell, chairman of the house of commons Channel committee speaking at a meeting in London yesterday explained the importance of such a railway between England and France. He thought it would be practicable for the line to run from London to Calais without break or change of gauge. Eventually when normal conditions are restored the line might be extended from London to Calais to Cape Town and Peking, he said.

STATEMENTS

Official Communications Issued By Belligerent Countries Regarding War Situation.

BRITISH

LONDON, June 14.—The report issued by the war department today dealing with aerial operations reads:

"On Thursday low clouds and poor visibility impeded work in the air but our machines took advantage of spells of clearer weather to make observations for artillery fire and to carry out numerous patrols and reconnaissances. Nine tons of bombs were dropped by us on the Zeebrugge mole on the Armentieres and Comines stations and on targets in the French battle area. Ten hostile airplanes were destroyed during the day and two were driven down out of control. In addition a German balloon was brought down in flames. We lost five machines. A heavy mist prevented flying during the night."

LONDON, June 14.—The admiralty today issued the following official statement on naval aerial operations:

"During the period of June 10 to 12, the operations of our air force contingents have been attended by unfavorable weather. In addition to the usual patrols, bombing operations were carried out during the day and the night time against Zeebrugge, the Bruges docks and the Ostend docks. In all eighteen tons of bombs were dropped. Two hits were observed on the mole and bursts on the seaplane shed at Zeebrugge and at Bruges. Fires were caused at several places. Hits also were observed at the Bruges docks and bursts were observed at the Bassin de la Marine and the Gar Maritime Ostend. Clouds at times preventing observation. One enemy aircraft was destroyed. One of our machines is missing. In Mediterranean waters enemy submarines also have been sighted and attacked and enemy mines were located and allied and neutral shipping was convoyed. During the same period aircraft attached to the British Aegean squadron bombed aerodromes of the enemy at Drama, and other places in the Dardanelles were attacked. Two of the enemy's fighting scouts were downed in flames."

GERMAN

BERLIN, June 14.—via London. Heavy attacks by the French against the Germans between Voormezele and Vierstraet, south west of Ypres, have been sanguinarily repulsed, according to the German official communication issued today. The communication reports only light fighting on the remainder of the western front.

The text of the communication follows:
"Southwest of Ypres the French launched violent attacks against our lines between Voormezele and Vierstraet. They were repulsed with great slaughter, and 150 prisoners remained in our hands."

"There have been successful reconnoitering engagements in the Kemmel sector."

"On the remainder of the front the fighting activity revived only intermittently. The increased artillery activity has been kept up on the battlefield southwest of Noyon. In the neighborhood of Courcelles and Mery as well as in the Matz region immediately west of the Oise the enemy renewed his counterattacks but was repulsed with heavy losses."

"On both sides of the road between Soissons and Villers Cotterets we performed our operations against the enemy at the forest of Villers Cotterets."

"Since May 27 the army of General von Boehm has captured more than 730 guns. This increased the number of guns brought in by the army group of the German crown prince since May 27 to 1,050. Twenty-eight enemy airplanes were shot down yesterday. The losses of the enemy's air forces on the German front for the month of May amount to 23 captive balloons and 413 airplanes. Of the airplanes 223 fell behind our lines and the rest on other side of the enemy's positions. We have lost in air fighting 180 airplanes and 28 captive balloons."

ITALIAN

ROME, June 14.—The statement issued by the Italian war department today follows:

"In the early hours yesterday after an intense and extended artillery preparation the enemy attempted to force the defenses of the Pass by launching an infantry attack against Cady Summit and the Monticello Ridge, immediately north and south of an important road. Owing to the firm resistance of our troops the assault was broken up on our advanced lines. Later our infantry counter-attacks and the deadly concentration of our artillery fire arrested the enemy and definitely drove him back. An enemy attack again was attempted north of the road between 9 p. m. and 11 p. m. but was promptly crushed by our barrage fire. We captured 130 prisoners and several machine guns."

"One enemy airplane was downed. One of our airships, notwithstanding difficult atmospheric conditions, carried out an effective bombardment during the operations."

BRITISH CASUALTIES REPORTED FOR WEEK

London, June 14.—British casualties reported in the week ending today totalled 34,171 officers and men, of this number 4,447 being killed.

I. W. W. AGENTS TAKE AWAY FIRE FIGHTERS

Testimony of Witnesses to Effect in Trial of I. W. W. Members in Chicago.

Chicago, June 14.—While forest fire that broke out at Flynn, Wash., July 14, 1917, raged and spread to the government reserve which included trees and timber, I. W. W. agents succeeded in calling away 8 of the 140 fire fighters according to witnesses today before Federal Judge Landis in the trial of 101 I. W. W. members.

The men who remained to fight the fire were loyal citizens according to Dayton Beveridge was in charge of the fire fighters.
George H. Webb, manager of a lumber company operating that vicinity said he pleaded vainly with I. W. W. agents to call out their men because he hoped to save the government timber.

J. F. Delaney, a hotel keeper at Flynn testified that three I. W. W. agents spent a day at the hotel and told him they were the way to the woods to call the men.

Both men and women can vote at the bond election Tuesday. It is unfortunate that the children also do not have a voice. Then there would be a chance of making it unanimous for an increased water supply.

HOME WATER SUPPLY FACTS.

Not for many a year has there been so much interest manifested in a question of public welfare as that of the water supply which is before the people for decision at the election next Tuesday. Men and women both vote upon the proposition and the polls will be open in the sixteen precincts of the city during the usual hours. The interest in the question is great in large measure as the people turn over the pages of memory a few months and consider the very acute situation which prevailed here, with not half enough water for health and fire protection.

Another reason for interest is the fact that the public realizes that something must be done to assure an adequate water supply for the three state institutions, otherwise no course is left for state officials to be true to their obligations but to provide a private supply for the institutions entrusted to their care.

In complete returns from 25 states show that nearly 3,400,000 women have registered for work under the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense.

Remember that National War Savings Day is June 28. Pledge yourself on or before that day to save to the utmost of your ability and to buy War Savings Stamps that may be money, labor and materials back up those who fight and for you.

The plan for providing water supply has been determined upon as the most feasible after extended investigation by the best engineering authorities in the state. Every step in the procedure thus far has been carefully and cautiously taken and now it is necessary to ask the people to decide whether or not they want adequate water supply.

An increased water supply is installed by the vote of Jacksonville people. It will be a plan approved by the people of Illinois. The fact is it cannot be otherwise, for state law provides that the state department must approve before any water supply construction can be undertaken.

GOVERNOR YATES FOR AGGRESSIVE ACTION
Gov. Richard Yates has announced his candidacy for Republican nomination for congress at large. Because of the governor's wide acquaintance following throughout the state because of his special fitness for the post, his candidacy will live widespread approval. His hearty with state and national affairs—his grasp of the question which now agitates the mind—will have special appeal at this time. There is an air fact about Gov. Yates which will give him prestige as a congressional candidate, and that is his unbroken record of patriotism. For these many years he has been an ardent American and with eloquent tongue and pen has pointed out the real duties of patriotism to the people of the state he so well loves. If Richard Yates has any "hobby" it is patriotism.

It will be all very well to vote in favor of the water supply proposition because of your belief that the supply is needed by the general public, but after all, a vote in favor of the proposition will be a vote for your own protection and comfort. General and self-interest both suggest your support of this water supply proposition—the most important local issue that has come before the people in many years' time.

THE WIN THE WAR SPIRIT.

Every day brings some new evidence of the spirit with which people for patriotic reasons are very willing to brook interference with what they formally considered their private rights. Abstain from the use of certain foods, they pay increased railroad rates, they do not question the war tax as it is presented to them in varied ways every day—all because they know that the changed conditions are necessary in account of America's participation in the war and that "we must win the war."

It is in this same docile spirit that many large employers are now receiving the suggestion from the U. S. employment service that they should cease advertising for workers and let the government's effort to make an equitable distribution of labor supply take its course. Here is a paragraph from a recent U. S. employment service statement:

"Look here; your advertising is only assisting in demoralizing the labor market, hurting some other industry whose product is as much needed to win the war as yours and handicapping the efforts of the Government to distribute the available labor supply."

"Perhaps, chances are that in the long run you are not getting results from it. Workmen, seeing widespread advertising by an establishment for men at fair wages are liable to be suspicious since they have been caught many times by this form of bait."

"We have 350 branch offices in all parts of the country, 17,000 recruiting agents, virtually in every county and a daily intelligence system which keeps informed of the employment situation in every section. We are finding and placing 6,000 men a day. Why not stop advertising and ask us to get you men?"

STATE WELFARE DEPARTMENT AND WATER SUPPLY.
The statement from the Illinois department of welfare which appears on this page is worthy of most careful perusal. The state officials in a very deft and cautious way make it apparent that they are by no means attempting to dictate to Jacksonville people what should be done with reference to the water supply or any other local question, and at the same time the officers stress the fact of how intimately the water supply question does affect the three state institutions here.

The letter referred to was sent to both the Courier and Journal by A. L. Bowen, superintendent of charities, merely with the suggestion that if it was considered worthy of space that its publication would be appreciated by the department. The statement most forcefully expresses how essential an abundant supply of water is for the very maintenance of the safety of both the wards and the property of the state included in these institutions here.

In addition to these large considerations there is that other equally great, of the health of the people connected with these institutions. So without the slightest suggestion of dictation to the people of this city, the public welfare department has thrown the limelight upon the institution phase of this water supply question.

The statement is enough to convince the average reader of the importance of providing better water supply for these state institutions even if there were no other facts to consider. For those who read between the lines and realize that the state can and will provide a water supply for the state institutions here if Jacksonville does not do so, there is an additional lesson.

OVER THE TOP ON JUNE 28TH.

Illinois must go "over the top" in war savings pledges on June 28th, which has been designated by official proclamation of President Wilson as National War Savings Stamp Day.

All over the United States on that day the people of the nation will be meeting in the school houses or other designated places for the purpose of signing pledges to purchase War Savings Stamps regularly during the remainder of the year. The President has asked that they so meet. Governors of the states have issued proclamations calling them together. State directors have issued statements telling the methods of procedure, and all plans have been made.

It remains now for the meetings to be held and the signatures to the pledge obtained. Illinois or at least the greater part of the state had a big Pledge Week drive in May, and obtained pledges for some millions of dollars. However not enough were obtained to justify the state in telling the world "our work is done." Some counties did go "over the top." Others came near it. But more missed the mark by a wide margin, and some did nothing at all.

Nothing must be lacking in June. Every state in the union will be making the same drive. If Illinois should fall down, it would rank far down among the states in patriotism, for many states are going to put it over. Illinois cannot have it said it is not as patriotic as any state in the union. The school district meeting plan will work. It worked in Nebraska. That state held its meetings away back in February. Pledges for the entire year's quota were signed up while other states were still doing what they considered their preparatory work of education—of telling the people what War Savings Stamps are. Nebraska now has sold more than three-quarters of its entire quota, with the year not half gone, and is continuing to sell stamps at a rate which insures oversubscribing its quota by at least fifty per cent, with the possibility of doubling it.

A double duty rests on Illinois. The state was so slow in getting its sales started that it is far down in the list every month when the Government issues its statement of the standing of the various states. On May 1st it was twenty-third in per capita sales, and was exceeded in total sales by Nebraska, which has only about one-sixth of Illinois' population. Illinois should and must catch up in June. For this reason efforts are being bent toward obtaining cash sales of War Savings Stamps in addition to the necessary pledges.

State Welfare Department Shows Relationship of Water Supply to State Institutions

The Journal was yesterday in receipt of the following communication sent by A. L. Bowen, superintendent of charities. Mr. Bowen sent the communication on behalf of the department of public welfare of the state of Illinois. Every sentence in the statement merits the careful reading and consideration of the people of Jacksonville:

The State of Illinois, because of its three institutions located in Jacksonville is interested in the water works bond election, which is set for June 18th.

The Department of Public Welfare, which is charged with the administration of these institutions deems it a duty to call attention to the very grave situation in which these institutions are placed whenever there is a shortage of water.

We hesitate to express our side of this case because of the fear we may be charged with partiality to one side in the controversy now in progress. We are interested in the contest only as heavy consumers of water who have to depend upon the public source. In no wise are we any part of the organized effort to carry this election for the bonds. It is our purpose and intention to keep hands off the policies and affairs of your city. But we feel that a fair statement of our situation will neither injure nor offend anyone and we are very certain that our motives will not be misjudged.

The State School for the Blind houses 200 blind children. The main building is four stories high. It is not fire proof. The School for the Deaf, main building, is three stories high. It is not fire proof. In the first institution the inmates can hear but cannot see. In the second they can see but cannot hear. In both institutions, therefore, the danger from fire, affecting human life, is very much greater and very much more serious than it would be in buildings housing seeing and hearing children.

The State Hospital houses more than 2,000 insane patients and about 300 employees. The main building is four, five and six stories high. It is not fire proof. The annex building is three stories high. It is not fire proof. For treatment of patients, for sanitation and cleanliness and for domestic purposes, very large quantities of water are needed daily at this hospital. The per capita consumption of water in an institution of this kind is very much greater than that in the homes of your city. It is greater than the per capita consumption of the whole city exclusive of the hospital.

Last winter when the famine was so acute, it was necessary to close toilets at certain hours, to stop the bathing of patients, and otherwise to, cut down on essential uses of water, to say nothing of extra hazard from fire under such conditions.

As a solution of the state's problem and as a business proposition for the city of Jacksonville, the building of a new water plant must appeal to the voter and property owner.

We trust the citizens of Jacksonville in making up their minds on this subject will not consider us as interlopers seeking to impose our judgment or wishes upon them. We simply ask them to give the institution phase of this question the thought to which its magnitude entitles it.

Respectfully,
Department of Public Welfare.

SERGT. LARSON HOME ON FURLOUGH

Sergeant John W. Larson is here from Camp Sheridan on a ten days' furlough.

Sergeant Larson is in the quarter masters department, is assigned to service at the base hospital at Camp Sheridan, and is in the supply department.

He was previously located at Camp Joseph Johnston and the indications are now that he is on permanent duty at Camp Sheridan and of course has no idea how long he will be on duty there.

Sergeant Larson's work is of a kind for which his long experience well fits him and he is enthusiastic about army life.

ELKS JOINED IN PATRIOTIC SERVICE

Sergeant Campbell of Canadian Army Made Principal Address—A Tribute to the Flag by J. J. Reeve.

"We pledge allegiance to our flag and to the republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

This was the motto upon the program for the flag day exercises given under the auspices of the Jacksonville lodge of Elks, No. 682, at Central Christian church Friday evening. The church auditorium had been profusely decorated with flags and the arrangements were all of a kind to increase the patriotic spirit. The invocation was by Dr. F. B. Madden and following it the audience joined in singing the Star Spangled Banner. Introductory exercises were carried out by the officers: E. E. Henderson, Exalted ruler; J. Myers Weber, Leading knight; M. S. Meyer, loyal knight; John M. Rule, lecturing knight; E. P. Alexander, secretary; William Robinson, chaplain; Paul D. Moriarty, esquire.

Paid Tribute to the Flag.

Prayer was offered by O. E. Tandy as chaplain, who was present in the place of William Robinson, the chaplain of the lodge. The audience greatly enjoyed the songs, "Your Flag and My Flag" and "My Boy" by Miss Hazel Belle Long, her accompanist being Leroy Salzenstein. Both the songs and an encore were artistically given. John J. Reeve, member of the order, gave in a most interesting and eloquent way "The History of the Flag" and paid a tribute to the stars and stripes which breathed an unceasing patriotism. Then came a reading, "The Stars and Stripes in Flanders," by Miss Lee Edda Campbell. The selection was one of patriotic interest and it was excellently given.

The address of the occasion was by Sergeant George Campbell of the Canadian army, who is now giving a series of patriotic addresses under the auspices of the state council of defense. Sergeant Campbell spent more than a year with the Canadian forces at the front and it was because of his wounds that he was relieved from service at the front and has spent much of the time since in recruiting work. The limp with which the sergeant walks bears testimony of the injury received on the fighting line. Sergeant Campbell presented a graphic story of the earlier conflicts of the war and pointed out how much better off are the soldiers of today in training and equipment. Thousands of Canadians were rushed into the service before they were hardened by training and without the advantage of the equipment developed in later months. They with other forces of the allies went against the German war machine which had been forming for forty years. So the mortality rate was far greater in those days than now.

Appeal for People at Home.

The hardship of the men in the service, the spirit with which they meet danger and their willingness to sacrifice comfort and life itself in the great cause of liberty, were eloquently pictured by the speaker. He had a special appeal for the people at home to give the fullest support to the men at the front and declared that those who remained in comfort at home should certainly be ready and willing to save food, contribute money and do any other patriotic work which is called to their attention. The difference between the present day methods of warfare were compared in an interesting way with the methods which prevailed earlier in the war and then contrasted with conflicts of other years.

Sergeant Campbell told too of some of the means of barbarism practiced by German soldiers, the proof of which he had seen with his own eyes. He said that when the first reports came to him of cruelty to Belgian and French refugees, that he did not believe the stories he heard but that later observation had forced the truth upon him. Altogether the address was one which impressed anew upon the mind of his hearers the debt that they owe the soldiers of all the allied nations, and the duty which leads to the fullest and most self-sacrificing support of those men. After an enthusiastic period of applause the audience joined in the singing of America and the services closed with the benediction by Dr. Madden. The committee on arrangements included J. Myers Weber, chairman; John M. Rule and M. S. Meyer.

AUTO EXPRESS FROM ST. LOUIS.

T. M. Tomlinson and son Edward returned last night from two days business visit to St. Louis. They made the trip in Mr. Tomlinson's Ford car and incidentally brought back a considerable cargo of goods for the Tomlinson store. They left St. Louis at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon and were at home a few minutes past 9. The home trip consumed only a little more than five gallons of gasoline, so that when railroad and express rates are remembered, it is easy to figure that Mr. Tomlinson saved money by this initial automobile package service from St. Louis to Jacksonville.

Jacksonville Lodge No. 570, A. F. and A. M., will hold a special meeting this evening at 6:30 o'clock for work. Visiting brethren welcome.

CARPENTERS' UNION FOR WATER BONDS

Adopted Resolution Favoring Proposition at Special Meeting Friday Night.

At a special meeting of the Carpenters and Joiners' union, local No. 912, held Friday evening the proposition to issue bonds for a water system which comes up at a special election next Tuesday, was endorsed.

There was a good representation of members present when the meeting was called to order by President James A. Scott. Mr. Scott stated the object of the meeting and Dr. Harker gave a brief talk in which he explained what it was proposed to do.

After a discussion of the matter the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, "That we as a union endorse the action of the citizen's committee and favor the issuance of water bonds to build a water system."

MEMBERS OF D. A. R. OBSERVE FLAG DAY

Impressive Ceremonies Carried Out on Illinois College Campus Addresses By Capt. W. T. Harmon, Camp Grant and Lieut. Cameron of the Canadian Forces.

An immense audience gathered on the campus of Illinois college last evening to observe the Flag Day exercises and program of the Daughters of the Revolution. Seats were arranged in front of Sturtevant hall so that nearly everybody was in the shade while a large number of automobiles were parked about the speakers' stand. The evening was quiet, no air stirring and in every way the conditions were propitious for the success of the occasion. The singing was led by Rev. W. E. Collins, pastor of the Congregational church, with Miss Inez Hucceby at the piano and a large chorus, was especially inspiring. The procession was indeed imposing. It was preceded by—

Three Flags.
Daughters of the Revolution.
Grand Army of the Republic.
Woman's Relief Corps.
Exemption Board.
Red Cross Officers.
Red Cross Nurses.
National Council of Defense.
Boy Scouts.

They marched to the inspiring notes of "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by the choir and the audience and last assigned to their places.

Miss Fairbank Presided
Miss Maria Fairbank president of the Rev. James Caldwell Chapter, D. A. R., then ascended the platform and said:

"The Rev. James Caldwell Chapter D. A. R., gives glad welcome to you who are joining with us celebrating the 138th anniversary of the adoption of our national flag, and 21st anniversary of nation-wide celebration that adoption."

"The past week has been given to the activities of Illinois College commencement. At every gathering, the keynote has been patriotism. 'How best to serve our country and the men in the service'. Our interest is not only with the men at the front, but also our boys in the camps being made into men for the front."

"One we have known as a school boy, collegian, teacher, athletic coach—Coach Harmon has been a name to conjure with 'on the Hill' and the first to enter the reserve officers' training camp at Camp Grant, one who has come back to his college commencement. Tonight he will tell us something of the work and life at Camp Grant."

"It gives me great pleasure to present to you, Capt. W. T. Harmon, of the National Army."

A very few thoughts are presented to the captains' address. He told how much pleasure it gave him to visit the college; how great a relief to get away from the monotony of camp life thru the country where such great plant existed on every hand. Over there all was happy and smiling but a few years ago and now how sad the conditions. Many changes had taken place in his camp which had been changed to accommodate a large number of men. As captain of 250 men he had a serious task and difficult problem before him. At first men went away with relatives sobbing on their necks but now all is changed and the train pulls off amid cheers and hurrahs. Sometimes new arrivals had in the ranks men who had taken too much liquor but that is mostly a thing of the past. At first new additions brought diseases that spread like epidemics thru the camp but now they are segregated till all are in good health. He told in an entertaining manner of the way the first night each man received an empty straw tick, was sent to fill it, and then repair to his little cot. He told about the hikes, the food, the equipment and in fine, all that pertained to army life in camp. He greatly praised the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and the people of Rockford who did so much to entertain the men. He begged all to write letters often and cheer up the men. He was heard with deep interest throughout.

"Battle Cry of Freedom" and "Hymns" were sung. Miss Fairbank spoke of the Illinois Centennial and referred to several of the community who are deeply interested in the celebration.

This event this evening was suggested by H. H. Bancroft and once President Rammelkamp announced the use of the college campus and she invited the gentlemen to tell the audience something regarding the part Morgan County would have in the celebration of the state centennial.

President Rammelkamp
President Rammelkamp said in brief:

"I am glad to welcome you to the campus tonight. This celebration is to pledge anew our devotion to the flag of our country and to inspire interest in the celebration of centennial year. This is truly historic ground. Here is the oldest college building in the state and here labored such men as Beecher, Crandall, Turner, Adams, Craighton and other noble souls; here were trained such men as Yates, the war governor, Bateman and other mighty souls."

"It is the hope of the management to have a grand celebration July Fourth in which all the county will participate. There are to be floats representing the progress of the state and many things of which we may be proud. Patriotism must be based on knowledge for if we cannot comprehend the issues we cannot intelligently work for them. We ask the co-operation of every one in this great enterprise. I trust that the spirit of '76 and '61 will animate all citizens to make this occasion one especially grand."

The choir then sang "Hail Illin'" and "God Save Our King" and then Miss Fairbank with highly complimentary remarks introduced Lieut. Cameron, recruiting officer for the Canadian government in St. Louis.

Canadian Army Officer Talks
The gentleman told of his great pleasure at being present. He had been a bit troubled when he learned he was coming under the auspices of the Daughters of the Revolution as that might stir up some memories not wholly pleasant, but it was explained to him that he was coming to the celebration of the 138th anniversary of the adoption of the country's flag and then he was content.

He was practicing law when the war broke out but he gave up his business and went to the front. His battalion went into the fray with 1,100 men and wound up with 190. He told how they were instructed to cross "No Man's Land" and bring back a prisoner; one detachment went and failed losing two men; another lost seven and another fifteen till they tried a different method. He described the construction of the trenches and the manner of using them and gave many instances, some humorous and some very sad.

This war is sacred to the United States and is hallowed by the blood of the men who died in '76 and '61, and other times. It is made holy by the blood shed in France. The land has been too easy and passive. We do not know enough about the great issue. He visited one place in Southern Illinois where they had done nothing for the Red Cross but gave $1,000. And another similar where they gave $750. The Germans are busy spreading lying reports among all classes of men.

Let us be brave, fearless and persistent, bring all the forces to bear and we shall surely win. The choir then sang "Over There," "Long Time Coming" and "America" winding up with "God Bless Our Noble Men."

Vote health and fire protection for Jacksonville and for yourself at the bond election Tuesday. That means vote "YES."

MAY RE-CLASSIFY CLASS ONE MEN
Conference at Springfield May Result in Re-classification of Men in Class One—Move is to Remedy Conditions in Kankakee County.

Springfield, Ill., June 14.—Possibility that some men in Class One of the selective draft may be put back in deferred classification was suggested here today as the result of a conference of Governor Lowden and members of the Kankakee county exemption board and the appeal board of the eastern district at Champaign.

Complaint by the Kankakee board that between 35 and 40 per cent of its draft registrants were in Class One whereas the state average was given as 28 per cent brought about the meeting.

In an attempt to remedy the reported inequality it was arranged that the Kankakee board shall review all questionnaires of Kankakee county registrants believed to be entitled to deferred classification to the end that classifications palpably incorrect may be adjusted.

Adjutant General Dickson said the point at issue affected only Kankakee county but admitted action might be taken by other boards.

ONE BROKER OUT OF FIVE REPORTED INCOME
Washington, June 14.—A large proportion of brokers than of any other occupations class reported incomes of more than $3,000 in 1916, and farmers made proportionately the smallest number of returns, it was shown today in an analysis of income tax returns for 1916. One out of every five brokers made returns but only one in 400 farmers. Nearly one fifth of all lawyers and judges made returns. Teachers, actors, musicians, preachers and saloon keepers were among the classes of incomes of more than $3,000.

MARRIED BY TELEGRAPH.
New York, June 14.—Wedded by telegraph tonight, Miss Lydia Pearce of London, Kansas, visiting at Emporia and Private Leo Strohmayer, an artilleryman at Camp Mills, were united in a ceremony performed in fifteen minutes. An army chaplain in the telegraph office at the camp, dictated to a telegrapher his questions and the answers of the groom, and at Emporia a magistrate interrogated the bride and wired her replies.

TO HOLD HEARINGS ON "PROHI" AMENDMENT

Agricultural Committee Reconsiders Favorable Vote Previously Taken—Randall Amendment is Rejected.

Washington, June 14.—The senate agricultural committee late today reconsidered its vote of earlier in the day for a favorable report on the proposal of Senator Jones of Washington for national prohibition during the war and decided to hold hearings on the amendment. The committee however sustained its former action in eliminating from the emergency agricultural bill, the Randall prohibition amendment.

Senator Smith of South Carolina, acting chairman of the committee announced the hearings will open next Monday. Several members of the committee are said to hold the amendment unconstitutional. Rejection of the Randall amendment is understood to have been unanimous. Under its provision expenditure of approximately $6,000,000 provided in the agricultural appropriation bill would have been prevented unless President Wilson issued a prohibition of use of foodstuffs in production of beer or wine. The committee also eliminated from the bill the house provision prohibiting use of money appropriated in the measure to any employee of draft age in the department of agriculture who had been given deferred classification.

ALLIED SUCCESSES WORRY GERMANS

Huns Shell British Positions Heavily in Endeavor to Stop Advance.

London, June 14.—via Ottawa. Reuters' correspondent at British headquarters in France says: "The Germans are apparently much concerned over our progressive successes in the Strazeele sector and have shelled our front line positions and places in the Hazebrouck area considerably. Early this morning the enemy launched an infantry attack. A party of about one hundred shock troops drove out the garrison of a new post by vigorous attack regained it and secured about ten prisoners. Our casualties were light. The French in their attacks of yesterday on the enemy positions in Ridgewood took one officer and forty men, but later had to relinquish captured ground. The hostile artillery is again active in the Scarpe valley. Famous being heavily shelled with gas shells and high explosives."

SECRETARY McADOO ISSUES STATEMENT
Washington, June 14.—Secretary McAdoo today denied information as to what steps are being taken to stabilize the value of the American dollar abroad.

Asked for information in a senate resolution he replied that in the opinion of President Wilson it would be inadvisable to supply it at this time for fear it might reach enemy countries.

AMERICAN STEAMER BURNS OFF KEY WEST

Small Steamer Totally Destroyed Off Coast of Key West—Captain and Crew of Thirty-one Men Saved.

Key West, Fla., June 14.—The American Steamer F. A. Kilburn was destroyed by fire today off San Francisco and all of the crew numbering 31 were saved.

She was a small craft of 997 gross tons and San Francisco was her port.

Details of the fire were not available tonight. Its origin could not be learned. Members of the crew said their distress signal was answered by a patrol boat. The patrol boat arrived in port this evening bringing the crew. Captain Mallard and a woman who was aboard the Kilburn. The ship was of wooden construction and was designed for passenger and freight use.

LARGE SUMS FOR ARMY BUILDINGS.
Washington, June 14.—Building construction for the army at home and abroad completed, commenced and projected, involves a total expenditure of $1,170,619,000 according to a summary authorized tonight by Secretary Baker. Besides cantonments and camps the department has provided emergency housing for civilian employees, expanded existing warehouses and manufacturing plants and built new ones.

Up to June 1 the construction division has completed 53 jobs, 36 being cantonments and camps at a cost of $202,250,000. It has now underway 244 operations which will cost $270,000,000. Preparations are being made to start 117 more to cost $700,000,000.

Don't Let Catarrh Drag You into Consumption

Avoid Its Dangerous Stage.

There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and the hawking and spitting and other distasteful features. The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications.

S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh because it goes direct to its source, and removes the germs of the disease from the blood. Get a bottle from your druggist today, and begin the only logical treatment that gives real results. SANGAMON COUNTY'S CANDIDATE FOR THE SENATE

Sangamon county has presented to it the opportunity to name the senator for the Forty-fifth District in the next General Assembly by accepting the candidacy of Dr. J. A. Wheeler, who is standing for the Republican primary nomination. If the primary voters show wise judgment they will give no attention to any other candidacy and make sure of the nomination of Doctor Wheeler.

This is a "good government" district. It is overwhelmingly dry, and the candidate endorsed by the dry organization is certain of election. Doctor Wheeler is the first choice of the dries. He stands conspicuously for the policies which have brought the dry interests into politics and which have made their issue the predominating issue of the legislative campaign. He is fully qualified in every way for the position and no candidate will be nominated against him with a prospect of success.

Preponderance of dry sentiment entitles the dry element to control the legislative representation in this county and district. When the dries present as their choice a candidate as capable as Doctor Wheeler he should be conceded the nomination without opposition. The nomination so made will be equivalent to election and will insure a vote in the senate upon this vital issue which will truly represent the sentiments of the great majority of voters in the Forty-fifth Senatorial District.

H. M. CAPPS NAMED HEAD OF ROTARY CLUB

Chosen at Meeting of Directors Held Yesterday — Sergeant Campbell was Luncheon Speaker.

The directors of the Rotary club at a session yesterday elected Harry M. Capps to the presidency, succeeding Frank J. Waddell, who declined re-election because of conflicting duties. W. L. Fay was re-elected vice president. Frank J. Waddell, secretary and LeRoy T. Potter, treasurer. The members of the club at the luncheon held at the Pacific Hotel were greatly pleased to welcome Sergt. Campbell of the Canadian army, who came to Jacksonville especially to address the patriotic meeting of Elks at the Christian church last night.

Sergt. Campbell spoke in brief informal way but gave an especially vivid picture of what service on the front line trenches means. He laid special emphasis on the thought that American soldiers were fortunate in entering the war at this time instead of the beginning, as the chances for escaping injury now are far greater than in the earlier days of the war. He explained his statement by telling of the great loss of men that came to his regiment at Vinay Ridge because there was no protection of artillery behind them. In those days the allies did not have the necessary artillery but now the men at the front are continually supported by the artillery.

When the speaker declared that America was going to have the credit for winning this war and asked that a small percentage of credit be retained for the allied nations, he was enthusiastically applauded. Most of the men in the company present evidently thoroughly grasped the situation and believe that while America may win the war that it is only because of the fact that the French, British and Canadian forces have been holding the huns back, that victory is now possible.

Louis Frank who has recently returned from a four months stay in Texas told in an interesting way of his visits to several army cantonments and aviation fields.

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS

The six men detailed for special work were inducted into the service Friday afternoon, and will leave Jacksonville this morning. Lee Crawford is the orderly in charge of the squad going to Bradley Polytechnic and Robert Nesmith orderly in charge of the squad going to Valparaiso, Ind. B. H. McCarthy and Charles Nickel are the others leaving for Peoria and Marion Self and Carl Swanson going to Valparaiso.

Miller, Weir, president of the local board was in Springfield Friday to confer with Adjutant General Dickson and State Auditor Andrew Russel with reference to securing an order temporarily deferring men engaged in agriculture from entrainment to camp. The adjutant general and the governor were in conference during the day on this subject and every effort will be made to have the department at Washington accede to some plan for the proposed deferment. The state officials are very much in hope that something can be accomplished along this line as they realize the difficult position in which farmers of this county and other counties in the corn belt will find themselves after the large contingent leaves for camp June 24.

GIFTS TO THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Within the past few weeks two notable gifts have been made to the Public Library. For some time an effort had been made by the librarian to get a copy of Livermore's History of the Civil War which is out of print.

In one of her talks on the Illinois Centennial, Miss S. A. Fairbank mentioned the need for a copy of this history at the library and Mrs. Ben Lorton who was present offered to give a copy. The book is in fine condition and is beautifully illustrated. The regimental flags of the Civil War are in colors. These flags are not easy to find.

The account of Mother Bickerdyke in the history is very full and the book is a valuable addition for all students of U. S. history.

The other gift is in money. The Science and Mathematics club disbanded some time ago with seventeen dollars and forty one cents in the treasury. This money they turned over in a check to Miss Barrette at the library and scientific books will be bought with it.

CLASS PROPHECY HAS MUCH OF INTEREST

Miss Mary Clark Is Author of Article Read at Recent Graduating Exercises of Murrayville High School.

At the recent graduating exercises of the Murrayville high school the class prophecy as presented by Miss Mary Clark was heard with special enthusiasm and the references made to the various members of the class caused frequent applause. There has been a special request for the publication of this prophecy and it is presented herewith:

One warm day in the spring of 1923, I stepped from the Union Depot in New York. But to let you into the secret of my mission to that city, I will relate a brief synopsis of my life, during the five years, since I graduated from the 1918 class in Murrayville. First of all you will remember that in the year 1918 United States and the allies were at the height of the great war against Germany. Well it was shortly after graduation in the fall of that year, that I with two of my schoolmates entered the Passavant hospital in Jacksonville to be trained as Red Cross nurses. We expected that it would take us four years at the least, but in 1919, the call for nurses to be sent to France was urgent and over some of the best of the beginners and I am proud to say we were among them had to be sent right away. We kept together during voyage across the sea, but when we reached shore, we were assigned to different posts and we did not see each other again while there. The many heart-breaking scenes I passed thru in France, I will not relate. The war came to a close in the spring of 1920 and the next year, I sailed for America. Having become attached to that branch of work and the call for nurses still being great, I retained my position. Gradually I grew higher and thru study and the influence of friends I became a doctor and later an eye specialist, making my headquarters at the city hospital in Detroit, Mich.

On the morning mentioned, I was sent by the head doctor of the hospital to make my usual one day's stay in New York City. I was not due at the office until 9:30 o'clock and as it was yet only 9 o'clock, instead of taking a street car, I decided to walk the distance. As I was strolling along, a group of laughing girls of high school age, came hurrying by. Their happy manner and joyful laughter carried me in memory back to my own school days and a longing to see all my old comrades once again, came over me. As I was thus thinking I heard a step behind me which sounded familiar. I didn't know who it was, but it seemed as if I had heard it before. I turned my head as the girl was about to pass, but she did not do so and in a moment I was grasping the hand of my former schoolmate, Florence Short.

The account of Mother Bickerdyke in the history is very full and the book is a valuable addition for all students of U. S. history. The other gift is in money. The Science and Mathematics club disbanded some time ago with seventeen dollars and forty one cents in the treasury. This money they turned over in a check to Miss Barrette at the library and scientific books will be bought with it.

When I arrived at the depot expecting to take a street car to the house, what was my surprise when Eloise led the way out to a large airplane and bade me enter. Airplanes were not very numerous in that day but Eloise knew how to fly them herself and we lost no time in reaching her home. We were met at the gate by a neat soldierly looking young man, whom Eloise introduced as her best man. I spent a delightful two weeks with them in their beautiful home and as I wanted to visit friends in Murrayville during my vacation, Eloise kindly volunteered to take me there in the airplane.

As we were talking of different things, I happened to notice a sign on a building we were passing, which read like this: "Guy W. Smith, lawyer." My curiosity was at once aroused and after calling my companion's attention to it, we concluded that it would do no harm to enter and see if the owner of that name, formerly lived in Murrayville. We knocked at the door of the office and were admitted by the clerk. But this was not all, Harriett was fast becoming famous for during her spare hours she had written a book, entitled "The Captive" the first copy of which had been published about a week before and enough books it seemed could not be printed to meet the demands. The most remarkable thing about it all was that Harriett had taken the main plot of her story, from a theme written in her Junior year, which showed that her early schooling had been of benefit to her. While in Murrayville an extra number of the Tribune was issued in which the principal item was, "Lucky investment in western lands, results in fortune of millions of dollars for Robert L. Osborne, head of National Auto Factory at Indianapolis and former resident of Murrayville."

which met my eye was this "Coming just one week from tonight, Captain Thomas Koyne of the American vessel Payton, to talk at Trinity Hall in New York on the subject, 'The Wonderful future of the American Navy'". It is needless to say that I was amazed, as I didn't even know that Thomas had joined the navy. All the rest of the way home I tried to figure engagements, so as to have that day off, for of course I wanted to hear the address, coming as it did, from one of my old class mates.

Upon reaching home that night my mail was waiting in my room and besides several business letters there was addressed one in familiar handwriting. Glancing up to the upper left hand corner, the return address ran thus, "Mrs. James de Lafayette New York City, 1209 Long street." Quickly tearing it open I read that I was asked to go on my next vacation to visit Mrs. James de Lafayette, whom you and I formerly knew better as Miss Eloise King, Murrayville. Her husband, Eloise said was the great grandson of Marquise de Lafayette, the great French general who helped us in our war for Independence. Eloise had met him in France and on one occasion when he was wounded had nursed him back to life. Please his wife they had come to America to live. She had only learned of my whereabouts by reading in the New York Tribune of my frequent trips to that city. My vacation did not come until about a month later, but I had double inducements to want to go sooner, one of which I have already mentioned; the other being my unbounded curiosity to see what sort of a looking chap Eloise's husband was, together with my desire to see Eloise once again. So I decided to apply the next morning for an earlier vacation which was granted. I then wrote a letter accepting the invitation and immediately began preparations for the journey. The next day I was on my way. Everything went all right until I got as far as Canton, Ohio, where I discovered that I had lost my pocketbook. As this loss, would prevent my going further, I stopped at that place and went to the Arlington bank to get a check cashed. As I stepped inside, I began to wonder if any surprises would await me there. Sure enough, standing behind one of the cashier's desks with a pencil in her neatly dressed hair, stood Marie Burns. I had not dreamed of seeing Marie there, but it couldn't have seemed more natural for even in our school days, I had always thought of Marie as a bookkeeper or something of the sort.

The next train was not due for an hour, so I had the opportunity of enjoying a conversation with her during which time, Marie said that she had gained the incentive for her present occupation, during the last half of her senior year, when bookkeeping had been one of the, as most of us that then, too numerous studies. I told Marie about the class mates whom I had heard, and she in turn told me that Leo Connolly was manager of a big ranch in one of the western states and was prospering greatly. She also said that the last time she heard from Leo, he was enjoying himself immensely, but from the tone of his letter, she judged, that he was not yet a confirmed bachelor. The time passed quickly and soon I had to leave Marie and go to catch the train.

While there, we learned that a school mate from our class, Cecil Thady had graduated from Normal University and was then a high school teacher in Bloomington, earning a handsome salary. We also were informed that the same source that Harriett Cox was the matron of Vassar College and that the girls all liked her for her gentle manner and winning ways. But this was not all, Harriett was fast becoming famous for during her spare hours she had written a book, entitled "The Captive" the first copy of which had been published about a week before and enough books it seemed could not be printed to meet the demands. The most remarkable thing about it all was that Harriett had taken the main plot of her story, from a theme written in her Junior year, which showed that her early schooling had been of benefit to her. MRS. GROUT HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON FRIDAY

Entertains Officers of Scott County Red Cross and Out of Town Guests at Delightful Luncheon — Young Men Leave for Various Training Camps.

Winchester, June 14.—Mrs. C. Grout entertained the county officers of the Red Cross and some out of town guests at a 1 o'clock luncheon at her home Friday afternoon. The following officers were present: Mrs. E. D. Beird, Mrs. Orion Woodson, Bluffs; Mrs. Hardin Young, Glasgow; Mrs. Bell Manchester, Mrs. Cal Simmons, Bloomfield; Miss Mabel Price, Oxville; Miss Elsie Lyons, Bloomfield; Miss Louise Leach, Point Pleasant; Mrs. Henry Pennington, Aley; Mrs. J. H. McKeene, Miss Louise Frost and Miss Gertrude Young, Winchester. The guests from out of the county were: Mrs. Thomas Condit, Mrs. Schaefer, Beardstown; Mrs. Wilbur Coultas, Crestatline, Ohio.

Thirteen young men whose names were given in Tuesday's Journal, left Winchester today at noon for Kansas City, Mo., where they will enter the Rahe Auto school. They were escorted to the station by the band and citizens in automobiles. Owing to the fact that but little advance notice had been given of the departure there was not as large a crowd as usual to bid the boys farewell.

Three men will leave for Valparaiso, Ind., Saturday to enter school there. The men who go are: Henry W. Summers, Bluffs; Bernard Lovekamp, Bluffs; Omer Sattiney, Winchester.

Three men will also leave Saturday noon for Peoria to enter Bradley Polytechnic school. They are: Leonard McGuire, Winchester; John Howell, Naples; Harvey McCool of Glasgow.

Fred G. Smith who resides near Glasgow was adjudged insane by a commission consisting of Dr. G. E. Brengle, Dr. L. R. Day of Winchester and Dr. G. W. Bowman of Aley and was taken to the state hospital at Jacksonville Friday by Sheriff Coultas and Jake Buckley, for treatment.

SEEK FACTS ABOUT OLD SOLDIER.

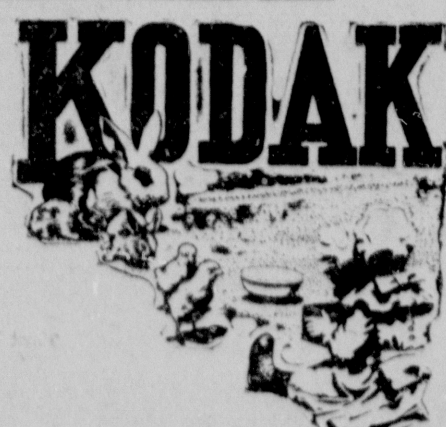

County Clerk C. A. Boruff is in receipt of a letter from Wiley Miller of Ludlow, Mo., seeking information concerning a Civil war veteran, George Withers. It seems from the letter that there is an old lady now living in Ludlow who is in destitute circumstances and that her husband was a soldier in the Civil war and that they lived in Morgan county. The husband came home from the war, dying shortly afterwards and subsequently his wife married Evan Evans, also now deceased. Under the law the old lady is entitled to a pension but she cannot remember the regiment or company in which her husband served but believes there are a number of Morgan county people who will well remember him. Mr. Miller asks that anyone here who remembers George Withers communicate with the county clerk so that their information can be forwarded in the endeavor to secure the pension which is greatly needed.

The letter printed below was written by Rewel A. Wright, "Somewhere in France," to his mother, Mrs. B. Wright of route 4, Virginia, Ill. The letter closes with some lines written for the boys in France in honor of Mother's Day.

Ordinance Division,
H. A. S. D.
U. S. A. P. O. 707,
Somewhere in France.

Dear mother:
I received three letters from you yesterday and maybe you think I wasn't delighted to get them. They were dated April 18th, 21st and 24th, and it was the first mail I had gotten for several days. Was awfully glad to hear you were well and do hope you continue that way.

I am feeling fine, am getting heavier all the time. Mother, I have been writing you three letters a week regularly and if you don't hear from me regularly don't get discouraged and think I have been killed or wounded, for I am worth a dozen dead men at present and hope to be the same for years.

Was so sorry to hear of Mr. H. Stevenson's critical condition. Poor fellow, I feel sorry for him or for any one that has to suffer. I wrote Julius Anderson a long letter Sunday, thought maybe it would cheer him up a bit. Have been wanting to write him ever since I heard he had enlisted, but just got his address a few days ago. Suppose you have the pictures I sent you nearly six weeks ago. They will give you an idea of the scare row I am becoming. We are having beautiful weather here. It has not rained for nearly two weeks which is breaking all records for this country, quite a change for it generally rains here 5 or 6 days a week.

I am enclosing a piece of red

For Tired Women With Aching Heads

"They help me so much and I find relief as soon as I begin taking your Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. Frank P. Wood, Morrill, Me., R. F. D. No. 2.
Sometimes it seems as if you can't stand the pain across your back. It is just making your life miserable and robbing you of all energy and strength. When you are constantly tired, head always aching, nerves "on edge," kidney action painful and burning, then is the time to start in at once on Foley Kidney Pills. They strengthen the weak, ailing kidneys, improve their action, enable them to throw off the poisons that cause your trouble. Your nerves grow peaceful, sleep becomes sounder, nervous headaches disappear. As Mrs. Wood says: "I find relief as soon as I begin to take your Foley Kidney Pills." Be sure you get the genuine Foley Kidney Pills, for they are purely medicinal and contain no harmful drugs.—Adv.

paper taken from a German propaganda balloon. These balloons are almost 6 feet high and 3 feet in diameter. The Germans fill them with propaganda and send them over our lines. They do this to try to discourage the Allies, but of course the effect of this propaganda is not noticeable.

Mother I will enclose a piece of poetry which was written for the boys for Mother's day, it will be old when you get it but I think it is very good. Well will close. Will write you again Sunday.

With lots of love, Rewel.

"To Mother."
I'm writing this note tonight to you, my Mother Dear, For I know that you are anxious 'Tis from me you wish to hear.

Just to know that I am safe and well

Still fighting for the right, Will fill your heart with gladness And bring your smile, so bright.

They've named today, Mothers' Day.

For mothers just like you, Who are always kind and patient, Noble, fond and true.

So here's to you, Dear Mother, May you live a thousand years Just to always cheer me up, Thru this vale of tears.

Now Mother don't you worry, I'm not forgetting you, Even tho my notes are short My love for you is true.

And I'll come sailing back to you When we have stopped the Hun; In the meantime I am still, Always, your loving son.

Mrs. W. E. Henry of the Nortonville neighborhood has received the following letter from her brother, Harvey E. Rogers, who is now on French soil. The young man is a son of George Rogers, now of Montana and formerly a resident of Nortonville. The letter follows:

April 14, 1918.

Dear Sister:
I guess it will be a surprise to you to get a letter from me, for I haven't written to you for so long. This leaves me well and getting along fine in my new field of livelihood. I haven't had an ailment from home since I landed in France. I don't know what is the reason, I have been writing all along. I guess I have had a little more experience as a soldier than you might suppose, for I have been in the trenches once and am out again now. About all I can tell you is "that I am somewhere in France," ha, ha. I have traveled many miles since I joined the army. I found the trenches much as I expected to find them. We are having considerable rain over here now.

This is sure a fine country. The people are very friendly even if they can't talk to us. I am getting along fine with military training. Of course everything is new to me but I always do as I am told and therefore I get along well. But I would sure like to have some mail from the States.

I want you to let all the folks read this letter for I feel that this is written to you all. I would sure like to see you girls for it has been so long since I saw them. They were small the last time I saw them and they are about grown now. Now you girls want to write me a letter too, for I am always glad to get any mail from the U. S.

When I come back there I want to visit in old Illinois again before I go to my western home. If I lose out on my western investment while I am away I shall not worry one bit over it, for I will just go back and start anew. I was just getting on my feet so I could make some money, but now my plans are scattered to the far-winds but I shall not let that bother me. If I lose there I will go to Canada into another new country and start anew.

We sure have a fine army over here. All strong healthy young men with good equipment and the best government in the world back of us. I think we are making a good representation of a strong and prosperous government. As one week of the American soldiers pay would make about a month's pay for the French or English soldiers. Well I guess I will close hoping to hear from you, I remain as ever your loving brother and uncle.

Private Harvey E. Rogers,

The following is from E. J. Wheeling to a friend in Jacksonville:

Fort Myer, Va., June 11, 1918.

Dear Friend:
No doubt you will be surprised to hear from me but I am taking the liberty this morning since I am not very busy, to write to you.

I am with the Engineers at Fort Myer, Va., and like an engineer's life fine. We have a fine camp here; it is a regular U. S. army fort just across the Potomac river from Washington, D. C. I have been all over Washington; it is a very pretty city, I think, and has lots of interesting places to see.

The Arlington National cemetery runs right alongside of our camp, the main entrance to it is not over 100 yards from where I am writing this letter. It is a beautiful place.

The old mansion of Robert E. Lee is right in the center of it. The Arlington wireless station which is the largest in the world is right at the entrance to our fort. I have seen all the high mounds over in the capitol city: Wilson, Daniels and Baker. There are only about a half dozen things I don't like about this place; it has been very hot here ever since I have been here which is about three months, and the chow has been fierce, but outside of that this would be a jolly place.

A soldier's life is not half bad after you get used to it, but it is hard to get used to it. There is only one other boy from Jacksonville here; he is Elmer Strandberg. We came up from Camp Taylor, Ky., together; some ride, too, believe me, through the Blue Ridge mountains and along the trail of the lonesome pine. This is a peculiar place, too, believe me. No Man's Land has not got a thing on this joint; a grave yard on one side, river on the other and mountains on other two. I have gained weight and also grown taller and I feel fine.

I have not had it quite as hard as some of the boys lately as I have been attached to the headquarters of our company clerking in the office and therefore enjoy a few more privileges than the ordinary soldiers. But I want to go across and think my desire will be granted real soon as we are expected to move any day; in fact have been all packed and ready for the past two weeks but you never know till time comes what you are going to do.

There are several girls from Jacksonville working over in Washington. I have been across twice: Grace Leary and Lee Turler; they have been out to the fort to see me several times.

E. J. Wheeling,
Fort Myer, Va.,
Co. 8, 49th Engineers.

The following is from a nephew of Charles Price of this city:

Camp Grant, Illinois.

Co. 22, 161st Depot Brigade.

Mr. Charles Price:
Dear Uncle: Your letter of the 14th inst at hand. I am very sorry it was delayed on account of the company I was with left last Tuesday on a two hundred mile hike to Sparta, Wisconsin and I was transferred to Co. 22, 161st Depot Brigade, therefore my mail was sent on to Sparta, Wisconsin and then back to Camp Grant again and no doubt laid around in the different post-offices. I am glad to know that I have relatives that write such inspiring letters.

You ask me how much I weigh and how tall I am. I am five feet eight and half inches tall in stocking feet and weigh one hundred and sixty seven and one half pounds.

This camp Grant is sure some large camp, it accommodates forty eight thousand soldiers at one time and as soon as the new soldiers get a certain amount of training they go to another camp in some other part of the world. I arrived here at 4:30. We were put in what is called quarantine fourteen days and in the meantime we were vaccinated and got three injections in the arm which had quite an effect on several in our company. These injections are to avoid sickness.

Our food depends a great deal on the cook that we might get in the different barracks. We get very little sweets; the quantity is generally fair but is most generally quite rough. I thank you for offering to contribute what I may need. You speak of sending me a sweater coat. Well it is almost too soon for a sweater owing to the fact that warm weather is coming on and I would have to carry it around with me from camp to camp. I will be very thankful to get a sweater later on when it gets cooler. In the army we wear what is called a sleeveless sweater vest without the collar.

No doubt you have these army wrist watches which I can make very good use of. I think express handles packages better and makes better delivery than the parcel post. I wish you would put your return address on all letters or packages.

We have been on quite a heavy guard here as we have had some trouble with the negroes. About a week ago there was a young lady here visiting with her soldier friend and out for a walk and about seventeen negroes beat up the white man and attacked the young lady.

We were informed Saturday morning that we were going to leave for Fort Houston, Texas, and to get ready, so I can't say just when we will leave; possibly tomorrow or the next day. I will write as soon as I get located there and tell you all about the trip.

I will close for the present, sending my regards to you and your wife.

I remain your nephew,
Ernest Melvin Price.

PARRELL BANK BUILDING

LETTER TO FARM CLUB MEMBERS

County Agent G. B. Kendall yesterday sent to members of the Farmers Club a letter dealing with various farm topics. Some of the matters mentioned were as follows:

Owing to the fact that the members are busy with corn planting, the county agent has not tried to arrange any large community meetings. As soon as the rush of corn planting is over, community meetings will be in order.

Bulletins and circulars on farm subjects have been sent out to all members. This is all valuable material for the farmer and his family. Anything in the penalty envelope bearing upon farming is apt to be sent out from this office.

Management of farm labor—Instead of hiring a hand at a flat rate of $40 for five months, the county agent has suggested a rising scale of $30 for March, $35 for April, $40 for May, $45 for June and $50 for July, or a flat rate of $35 per month with a bonus of $25 if he stays the full five months. There is an inducement for the farm hand to stick to his job here instead of quitting at harvest time.

Farmers everywhere are advised to pool their efforts in corn planting, and other farm projects just as they do for threshing and silo filling. This will help solve the farm labor problem, and will show the true neighborly spirit.

Binders and binder twine.—The advice here is to buy early. The man who waits may have to wait for his twine. There is enough twine for the crop, but it may not be distributed properly. Order close to three pounds for every acre of small grain you have to cut. It will not be any cheaper. Any surplus will come in handy at corn harvesting.

One gallon of crude creosote and 2 gallons of kerosene form a mixture for making blinder twine insect proof. The twine should be left in this until wet through and then dried ready for use.

Hog cholera.—Have you read the two circulars on the Serum Treatment for Hog Cholera and Sanitary Measures to Prevent Hog Cholera? If every one used the double treatment about weaning time and carried out the sanitary measures recommended, losses from cholera would be far fewer. Do not wait until cholera appears in your herd before you vaccinate.

The individual treatment of pigs for worms is practiced by many Illinois farmers. It is an effective way. Two of our farmers have tried the worm gun and think it is the only way. What do you think of the club purchasing several worm guns for its members?

Stock Foods and Conditioners.—The county agent has recently seen some things that indicate the indiscriminate use of the above is not advisable. One member thinks three sows and some pigs were killed by an overdose; another that five sows farrowed prematurely as a result of stock powder and still another that some pigs were killed by forcing them to eat a condition powder in slop. It is no more advisable to feed a hog unknown drugs than it is to take medicine that you do not know the contents of.

Mineral Food.—In the circulars on Hog Cholera were formulas for both mineral food and tonics. I am adding another homey, old one that will not either kill or cure.

Charcoal 1 bushel
Hardwood ashes 1 bushel
Salt 8 lbs.
Air slacked lime 4 lbs.
Sulphur 2 lbs.
Pulverized copperas 2 lbs.
Mix lime, salt, and sulphur thoroughly and then mix with charcoal and ashes. Dissolve the copperis in 1 quart of hot water and sprinkle over the whole and mix thoroughly. Keep a box of this mixture in a box by the hogs all the time.

Corn for Re-Planting.—The state seed corn administration is shipping us 100 bushels of Reid's Yellow Dent planting. If the demand strong, we shall ask for bushels more.

6% on Your Savings With Safety

ARE you earning? Are you saving? Earning and saving should go hand in hand. In these times of prosperity, prepare for the "Rainy Day" that comes sooner or later to most of us.

"How can I invest my savings safely?" is the question thousands of people ask.

The best answer is—buy bonds, good, safe bonds, the kind that is bought by banks, insurance companies, trustees, estates, and shrewd men of means—bonds that combine safety with 6% interest.

Many people used to think bonds were an investment for the rich. But now everyone knows that bonds are an investment for all the people.

36 Years Without a Dollar Loss to Any Investor

Invest your savings in first mortgage bonds, safeguarded under the Straus Plan. They are safe. The best proof we can give you of their safety is the fact that no investor has ever lost a dollar of principal or interest on any bond bought of us since this House was founded, 36 years ago. And they yield 6% interest.

You should learn more about these safe bonds, and about the reasons why they will make you a good, satisfactory investment. They can be bought in amounts as low as $100 and $500.

S. FISTULA, FISSURE and HEMORRHOIDS TREATED WITHOUT SURGICAL OPERATION

On Sept. 5, 1916, I had a chemical analysis made of my urine in Chicago laboratory and found that I was in the beginning of serious trouble. Had treated with other doctors with no benefits. Taken treatment from Dr. C. W. Carson, the Chicago Specialist for months the chemical analyses have shown no kidney trouble ever, and my kidneys and general condition have improved wonderfully. Am as strong and can do as much work as I ever did.

MEXICAN EDITORS

CAUGHT IN NET

Spread by Government for "Pernicious Foreigners" the Policy of Forcible Investigation was Recently Applied When Newspapermen Attacked Government.

Mexico City, June. (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Mexican newspapermen, as well as foreign correspondents, have been caught in the net which the government recently spread for what it termed "pernicious foreigners," eligible for deportation under article 33 of the constitution, and disseminators of false news.

A policy of "forcible investigation" was the remedy applied to the editors of Redencion, an afternoon paper opposed to the government. This paper published stories of the alleged successes won by General Luis Calles recently in Tamaulipas, after he revolted against the government, and printed somewhat alarming stories of conditions in that state.

To prove its contention that the news printed was false, the government provided the two editors with an escort of a general and twenty men and sent them on a trip through Tamaulipas by way of Tampico to Tamaulipas. Upon their return after a journey that lasted about a fortnight, the editors admitted they had not found the conditions prevailing to which they had referred. But, by implication, they stated it would have been foolish for them to expect to make an independent investigation with the escort that accompanied them. The editors concerned are Alfonso Barrera Perich and Manuel Bañal Alcaraz.

Another editor whose arrest has been ordered and whose paper, El Hombre Libre, has not appeared for some time, is Hugo Sol. He attacked the president and the administration.

Attorney Emilio Ruz Quijano, responsible for the publication of Tilt-Tilt, (Ring the Bell) is also in the toils. His sheet, a weekly, published a number of cartoons of more than casual interest in political significance, would never have been permitted to pass thru the United States mails. The cartoons were violently anti-governmental.

Cautious, anti-government, which appeared more as a dodger on the streets than as a newspaper has ceased publication for some reason which has not yet been explained.

The "forcible investigation" treatment was threatened in the case of reporters for El Universal, which printed stories of the excesses committed by the bandit, Jose Ines Chavez Garcia, in Michoacan and Jalisco. The governor of the federal district, General Alfredo, declared that, if the paper continued assertions of this kind, he would furnish the writers with a horse, a rifle and provisions and send them on a trip thru the territory they said Chavez Garcia controlled in order that they might investigate conditions for themselves.

Since Felix Palavicini, founder of Universal and leader of the anti-German, pro-Ally, press campaign in Mexico sold his controlling interest in Universal and left for the United States, for what he considered good reasons, stories of this kind have not appeared in Universal. Needless to say the prospect of interviewing Chavez Garcia had no charms for any employee of Universal.

No pro-German papers of the half a dozen published here, nor any employee of these papers, have been molested. These papers, however, confine their attacks to the Allies and the United States, in particular, and enthusiastically support the present Mexican administration.

OBITUARY

The following from the Calhoun, Mo., Clarion, pertains to a former resident of this county, a man, widely known and respected.

With sorrow, we chronicle the death of this good man. His passing is not only a family bereavement, but is a disquiet loss to the community—as evidenced by the magnificent floral tributes and the very large concourse of people assembled at the Methodist church Sunday at 2 p. m. for the funeral services conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Gager, assisted by Rev. Merrifield, pastor of the Baptist church; many attending the final requies at the graveside.

Isaac Houston, son of John Robert and Mary Houston, was born near Arenzville, Cass county, Illinois, September 15, 1848, died at his home near Calhoun, Mo. Friday May 17, 1918, in his 70th year. His illness was more the nature of an indisposition, receiving medical treatment, Friday morning he planned to come to town for a shave. In going to an adjoining room he suffered a heart attack, from which he died a few hours later.

November 4, 1874, Mr. Houston married Miss Anna F. Cowdin, who, with one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Hamilton of Goodland, Kansas, and four sons—Philip, Lincoln, Ross and Walter Houston, the latter at home the three older on farms near by—mourn the loss of husband, father and counselor.

Besides the immediate family, Mr. Houston leaves two brothers, three half sisters and a half brother, all residing in Illinois.

Mr. Houston and family located here about 22 years ago, coming from Kansas, whence they had gone from Illinois, remaining there but a few years. He was progressive and successful in his boyhood he united with the Methodist church and was a regular attendant, for years serving on the board of stewards of the Calhoun church. His early life was devoted to the support of dependents.

As said his pastor, "A good quiet, unassuming Christian brother, father, husband, and fellow citizen, has gone from us. We miss him, but extend our heartfelt sympathy to the grief stricken family."

Echo, Ia.—"For sixteen years, of a year ago," writes Mrs. J. O. Gueringer, of this place, "I suffered and suffered from all kinds of pain, until I got so run-down and weak I couldn't walk across the room. I was a physical wreck. I kept getting worse and worse and was confined to my bed for three months. . . . The friends of mine advised me to try Cardui. After using three bottles, I was much improved. . . . In a month I was able to get up and do a little work, and soon after was built-up, well and strong. . . . I used 13 bottles of Cardui all together. Have been well and strong ever since. I am giving Cardui now to my daughter. It did me so much good, I want her to try it. . . . I am glad to be able to make this statement so other sufferers may be benefited. I can never be thankful enough for what Cardui did for me."

Many thousands of women have had similar experiences with Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Try it, if you suffer pain, feel run-down and weak.

Cardui, taken in time, when you feel the first symptoms of trouble, may save you a long spell of sickness.

At all druggists.

ITALY DECORATES

AMERICAN HEROES

Decorations Awarded By Government to First Two Americans to Meet Death While Assisting Italy in Great War—Medals to Be Forwarded to Their Families.

Washington, June. — Decorations awarded by the Italian government to Richard Cutts Fairfield of New York and Boston and William Davenport Platt of Baltimore, the first two Americans to meet death while assisting Italy in the great war, have been sent to the embassy here, to be forwarded to their families.

The young men—Fairfield was only 18 while Platt was 26—were killed by a bomb explosion in the court of a hospital at Mestre, where they went on January 25 to remove wounded being made the objects of a German air raid. They were ambulance drivers in a Red Cross unit, and were buried with military honors in the town where they were killed.

Young Fairfield's adventurous spirit led him to run away from home when his mother, Mrs. James Cummings Barr, said he was too young to have permission to serve on the fighting fronts. He was not to be deterred, however, and having friends with money and influence he managed to get a ticket to Paris and a passport from the State Department, and latter a most difficult possession for a minor to obtain.

Rodman Wanamaker, second grandson of John Wanamaker, former postmaster general, furnished the money, but Fairfield's family even yet are uncertain as to his method of getting a passport. Once in Paris, the lad communicated with his mother, and obtained money.

Joined Companion.

On the ship going to France, he had fallen in with William Lavenport Platt. The latter, having more age and experience, was proceeding without so many obstacles to take a part in the fighting, in the same unostentatious fashion that has marked the career of hundreds of other young Americans, both before and after this country entered the war. Platt already had an assignment to Italy with the Wynne-Brown branch of the British Red Cross, and once secure in his own berth, he sent for Fairfield. The lad joined him in November.

The two were together in a Red Cross camp outside of Mestre when the bombs loosed by the raiders falling on the hospital crowded with wounded. Both responded to the call for aid, and mounted together on a motorcycle that outstripped the ambulances of their corps, they arrived in the little courtyard simultaneously with an exploding bomb. Two other men besides themselves were killed in the single explosion.

The decoration awarded is the Italian Medal for Military Valor, and goes to each of the nearest relatives of the dead men. Fairfield had entered Harvard for his first year when he ran away. Both the young men belonged to families of wealth and social position.

LONDON THEATRES

PERMIT SMOKING

London, June. — Three more of the first class London theatres have capitulated to the lure of tobacco. All the vaudeville or variety houses and seven of the best "legitimate" theatres now permit smoking, but it is still barred at about a dozen good theatres.

ATTEMPT EDUCATION

OF JAPANESE WOMEN

Tokio, June.—What is practically the first attempt at higher education for women in Japan has been taken in the dedication and opening of the Woman's Christian College of Japan. Through the cooperation of six mission boards, one Canadian and five American, this institution has been established in the suburbs of Tokio.

In the opening ceremonies recently, there was a large gathering of Japanese showing the interest they are taking in the new movement. The American ambassador, Roland S. Morris, was among the speakers. The university has 84 students in the first class, the only class with which the school is beginning. The war has interfered somewhat with the collection of funds, but it is confidently stated that in three years, the university will possess a site of its own consisting of fifteen or twenty acres, and new buildings.

ENGLISH POLITICS

INTEREST SOLDIERS

London, June. — American soldiers take a keen interest in the Houses of Parliament, and scarcely a day passes that parties of them are not seen making a tour of the buildings, sitting in the galleries of the House, or perhaps chatting on the floor with members.

John Burns, Labor member for Battersea, is much in demand by American visitors as a guide—a duty which he undertakes gladly, and for which he is member of either house is better qualified. He knows every nook and cranny of the great building and is thoroughly familiar with the long history of Parliament. His fund of knowledge and anecdote, his geniality and humor make him a great favorite with the Americans.

SPENT DAY AT FLORENCE.

A number of people motored to Florence Thursday and spent the day with Samuel Wilson and family. They were ferried across the river and the day was spent in boating. At noon a picnic dinner was served. Those composing the party were: Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson and sons Raymond and Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Patterson and sons Ray and Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dewese and daughters Pearl, Ruby and Eledith, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Patterson, Miss Martha Patterson and Samuel Wood. They were met at Florence by Harry Smith and Iona Wilson of Pittsfield, who spent the day with them.

AERIAL POSTAGE

Mrs. Martin Vogel sent McKendree Blair a letter acknowledging the invitation to the commencement exercises in the city. She remarked that as the young man was traveling in the air she would send him a letter the same way and accordingly had her missive go by the aerial route from New York to Washington paying 24 cents postage for the novelty of the thing. It is probably the first letter received in the city by that line.

RELIEF FROM ECZEMA

Don't worry about eczema or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, healthy skin by using a little zemo, obtained at any drug store for 35c, or extra large bottle at $1.00.

Zemo generally removes pimples, blackheads, blotches, eczema and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean, penetrating, antiseptic liquid, neither sticky nor greasy and stains nothing. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable.

IMPRESSIVE FLAG RAISING CEREMONIES

Employees of C. P. & St. L. Have Flag Raising—Address By O.
E. Tandy.

The Flag Day celebration at the C. P. & St. L. shops was a fine affair and sets forth the patriotism of all connected with the establishment.

In front of the main building was a flat car duly adorned with bunting and it served as a platform on which the program was carried out.

Roy Clifton sounded the bugle call very capably and all assembled about the car, here superintendent George M. Ingrand presided, C. S. Branch, superintendent of motive power, was present.

Prayer was offered eloquently by Dr. J. R. Harker, and then Clifton played the rite after which the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung, Albert Strauss, conductor of the carpenter shop leading.

All then, led by John Buckley, saluted the flag and recited in unison:

The Salute to the Flag and the Pledge of Allegiance.

"I pledge of Allegiance to my Flag, and to the Republic for which it stands. One nation indivisible with Liberty and Justice for all."

America's Creed.

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes."

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend its against all enemies."

O. E. Tandy Speaker.

O. E. Tandy was then introduced and delivered a strong and eloquent address of which a very short outline is given.

In 52 years this is the proudest moment of my life except when I led to the altar the dearest and best woman on earth.

We see floating above us the emblem of the greatest nation on the face of the earth. What can we find such red, white and blue, where such blue? As I speak to the men engaged in the transportation business I am addressing those who represent the most important industries of the most important countries and men of the shops which are one of the most important industries in the city and most valuable to it.

On "As we look on the glorious banner floating above us let us realize what it stands for as you see in your homes various pictures you see and than the gray, the water color or the all the pictures; you see in your mind the precious baby you loved so tenderly now with the angels; the aged mother, the sainted father, the beloved wife and many others and so the flag you behold is the emblem of all that great and noble in our land.

All Citizens Equal.

That flag represents a government which makes no difference between the rich and poor but treats all alike beneath its folds that flag is now threatened by the basest power that ever cursed earth. They would make slaves of us and take our country they could but like the stars in the flag of our country cannot be taken down. (Applause.)

The call is to you and to all patriotic citizens to do all in your power to carry on the war to a successful conclusion. Each man and woman has a work in many ways and when the grand old flag of liberty is borne in triumph through the streets of Berlin let us be able to say we had some part in securing the grand victory. (Prolonged applause.)

"America" was then sung, by Clifton accompanied with slide trombone and Albert Strauss leading after which Harker pronounced the benediction.

The committee in charge of the arrangements was composed of Charles Cobb, chairman; Charles Elder, John Hagel, Clay Cordeiro and Jake Eaton.

SUGAR SHORTAGE MORE ACUTE

Food Administration Announces
That More Conservation Methods
Must Be Followed.

The United States Food Administration has issued the following statement about the sugar situation:

Developments during the last few days necessitate more conservation of sugar. The Food Administration has therefore decided to limit sales for ordinary consumption to two pounds to the town or city consumer, and five pounds to the rural or farm consumer. The situation in Illinois is a puzzling one. The retail distributor received during May, the allotment plan in use in Illinois, an amount which seemed to be fully adequate to cover demands based on a somewhat smaller use of sugar in the household than in 1917.

It was apparent before the end of May that the amounts allotted were not taking care of the demand. We have no means of determining whether the consumer is careless in the use of sugar, but it is apparent that the retail distributor while not selling so much at one time must be selling more frequently, which defeats the object of the limitation. The patriotic householder will limit his purchases to three pounds per person per month and we believe that this is generally observed. We know there are others who are thoughtless and careless and others who are deliberately unpatriotic and are thinking only of their own comfort and convenience. One is just as bad as the other. We shall expose any such cases which come to us and which we find can be proven.

It may be necessary to put some limitation on the total quantity permitted to the householder for canning and preserving purposes. We think there is no doubt that it will be absolutely necessary to limit to a greater extent the use of sugar for less essential purposes after July 1st.

Supplementary Instructions for Sugar Deliveries

If one or more 25-pound sales have been made to a consumer for canning and preserving purposes, any additional sale must be authorized by the local administrator.

We are sorry for the necessity of requiring this restriction but conditions are such as to demand it. Sugar must be available to those needing it for strictly canning and preserving purposes.

LOVE I'LL COME BACK TO YOU

When it's morning at Camp Shelby, and the sun is shining thru, I'm thinking about the home folks and a Bonnie Lassie too.

When it's morning at Camp Shelby—Dear, my thoughts go back to you.

When the sun is in the heavens, and the sun is mighty hot, it's hard to breathe and stifling, and my throat is dry as rot. I've got to grin and bear it, 'half to see it thru, and help to add further glory to the old red, white and blue.

When the sun has passed Camp Shelby and the after glow is red, and upon the camp there falls a silence that reminds us of the dead, I'm feeling kind of lonely. I know you are lonely too. When the day is over at Camp Shelby—Love my thoughts go back to you.

When the Hun is driven far into his native land, and the world is freed forever from his terrible red hand, when the Kaiser lifts his hat to the old red, white and blue, and peace reigns o'er the world—Love, then I'll come back to you.

A Soldier Boy,

POULTRY PROGRESS

By D. T. Helmlich.

The poultry industry on farm, villages, town and city backyards is proving a most interesting factor in commercial value to the United States, that will go far in saving the red meat for our boys in France and allied countries and keep our own at home in meat and eggs to supply the needs of the hospitals where milk and eggs are the restorers to health and strength of the wounded and otherwise sick and unable to be of use until restored and again put in fit condition for service to fight for freedom, liberty and a world wide peace.

We as a people do not yet fully grasp the conditions that prevail in the war centers, but may not until war conditions are more forcibly brought home to us. To conserve and produce more is the watchword of the hour. The Government has men in the field to get in touch with every line of effort pertaining to greater and better production of live stock as well as other farm and garden products since February, 1918, thirty-nine men have been appointed to the various states to advise with the food administrations, the farm advisers and with the people of every locality that are, can be, and should be helpers in production. The five central and greatest grain producing states, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Indiana and Ohio, ranking first in this respect have been entered upon by having the greatest records as poultry and egg producing states, as the field that should have special attention by Government appointees best qualified to talk to and distribute the special bulletins pertaining to give light, and best information to poultry and egg producers. In spite of the fact that this educational work was delayed in getting started we are assured that there will be an increase of these commodities from thirty to forty which will off set the shortage of production in the New England states and still bring the average above that of 1917. Having gone over this state from home to Chicago by C. & A. R. R. and back on the N. W. R. R. south on the main line of T. C. & E. L., and across the state from East St. Louis on the Vandalla and Wabash R. R. never in the history of Illinois was there greater promise of more corn, wheat, oats, alfalfa and red clover than this year. Never in the history of the world, did the people as a whole give, work and endeavor to prove by word and acts that we are a united people determined to not only win this war but to prove that as a nation thrown together from all parts of the earth we will evolve from this melting pot a better people, that will prove the big brother to every other nation and people of the earth, that will bring order, unity and emancipation from economic and religious enslavement, and truly develop into a nation big enough and broad enough to enlighten the world to what all noble minded men and women of all nations have hoped, and prayed for for ages.

BUSINESS COLLEGE NOTES.

Tuesday evening at 6:30 the teachers and students of Brown's Business college enjoyed a picnic supper at Nichols Park. Needless to say everyone ate heartily of the sandwiches, and salads, potato chips, and other good things such as devil's food cake.

Friday morning patriotic services were held in the college basement, which was decorated with many flags especially for this occasion, large and small. Rev. F. M. Rule gave us a stirring patriotic address on the New Flag, and its meaning—the Service Flag, seen everywhere. The address was enjoyed by all and very much appreciated.

Brady Bros. donated the music in the form of an Edison machine with records.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ANSWERS CALL

The fire department responded to a still alarm at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon to Lukeman's clothing store. The firm was doing some fumigating on the second floor of the building and one of the candles was accidentally overturned and set the floor on fire. The blaze was extinguished with but slight damage.

THE PRESIDENT'S CALL

All Asked to Enlist as War Savers on or Before June 28.

By President Woodrow Wilson. This war is one of nations—not of armies—and all of our one hundred million people must be economically and industrially adjusted to war conditions if this nation is to play its full part in the conflict. The problem before us is not primarily a financial problem, but rather a problem of increased production of war essentials and the saving of the materials and the labor necessary for the support and equipment of our army and navy. Thoughtless expenditure of money for non-essentials uses up the labor of men, the products of the farm, mines and factories, and overburdens transportation, all of which must be used to the utmost and at their best for war purposes.
